Successful applicants will join a Supervision of Reflective Practice Group. The group will meet during course Saturdays and at fortnightly intervals in between; as a majority of students may live some distance from London, this is normally offered via Skype. 90% attendance is required. Supervisors will clarify Skype dates for the year with supervisees at the start of the programme.

Entry to the course is by application and interview. Applicants with appropriate training and experience will be invited to the Institute of Group Analysis, London for interview (dates and application deadlines on website). There is a £151 interview fee, this is payable by BACS payment, or by Debit or Credit card over the phone.
